UNDERGRADS

Class History

In the fall of 1958, thirty-seven bold, little creatures marched up the stairs to the door of the kindergarten room, which opened for them a new world of everlasting astonishing adventures. These little people were: Dwight Petzoldt, Sheila Fleming, Vickie Laubscher, Mary Leinen, June Gibson, Mary Muenchrath, Dallie Williams, Steven Kremin, Robert Peterson, Daniel Steinkuehler, Dennis Keairnes, Rita Woodard, Charlene Finken, Randall Clark, Marilyn Muff, Timothy Gordon, Catherine Weiss, Charles TenEyck, Dale Sharp, Gereld Muff, Thomas Gehl, Chris Wally, David Gray, Janet Cross, Mark Brasel, Debbie Gibson, Diana McCoid, Timmy Hebert, Barbara Hamblen, Carroll Crawford, Eugene Garrett, Donald Frazier, Frederic Greder, Tommy Brink, Dale Wendt, Michael David, and Debbie Hulsebus.

We got to bring our little rugs and have "nap time" every afternoon. It seems some of us never outgrew this need for a nap during school hours. For our first homecoming parade, we all dressed as cooks with big spoons and rode in the back of a big truck. Tommy Gehl and June Gibson were chosen as Homecoming king and queen of the 1958 Kindergarten Class.

First grade was quite an experience for us because we had graduated from chairs and tables to "big desks". We gained three new classmates, Curtis Thompson, Tommy Woodard, and Linda Thomas.

By the time we reached second grade, school was "old stuff" for us. Some of us struggled with phonics while others had problems making their letters look as neat as those Mrs. Whiting provided for us. Third grade was a little harder for us as now we were put to the task of learning our multiplication tables. We were overjoyed when Mrs. McGovern let us try our luck at presenting our first play.

In fourth grade we started our study of division. Mrs. Ballantine helped us decorate eggs and make our own little Easter egg tree.

We learned how to cope with fractions in fifth grade--anyway we tried but it seemed our final answer was just a fraction off. We all looked forward to last hour, because that's when Mrs. Nauroth read to us out of one of the "Laura and Mary" books.

Our sixth grade year we welcomed Bob TenEyck, Jean Fouts, Wayne Malone, and Glen Reeser. This is the year we all became actors and actresses by participating in two plays--and commercials.

Being in seventh grade gave us the added pleasure of learning how to play basketball and going to skating parties, Pat Lampe joined our class this same year.

And then, before we knew it, we were eighth graders--seniors of grammar school. Jeanie Cary was the current "new girl" this year. Although it's debatable if we learned anything else, we did learn (the hard way) to look for tacks before we sat down.

Our high school career opened with Freshman Initiation and a dance in our honor. We quickly learned the ways of high school and were ready to move on. Bob Heller, Mary Muenchrath, and Gary Bruck were our new classmates this year.

Our sophomore year we all looked forward to drivers training. But, and I'm sure Mr. Faltinson agrees, some of us were a bit too eager and had trouble keeping the car on the road. We all experienced the horrors of dissecting worms and other slimy, formaldehyde-smelling creatures in biology class. We never really accomplished any great tasks but we sure had fun messing up the little ones.

The first big event of our Junior year was the ordering of our precious class rings (which some of never kept very long?!?.). Some of us participated in the Junior-Senior Class Play "Susan Steps Out". While Mrs. Motter ably handled the acting and directing of the play, Janet and Marilyn skillfully applied our make-up.

One of the most important, exciting, and trying events in our Junior year was preparing for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. Our theme was "Moonlight & Roses". Everyone had a good time, mainly because we used some "Happy Water" (really it was gingerale & Pine apple juice) in the punch.

Seniors at last! We've waited twelve whole years for this year and now it can't go fast enough for some of us and its going too fast for others.

Homecoming provided a lot of excitement for everyone. During half time of the Dow City - Charter Oak-Ute game, Cathy Weiss was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1970-71.

The entire Senior Class traveled to Des Moines in February to visit the House, Senate, and Supreme Court.

So ends thirteen long years in a school that will never forget "The Memorable Class of "71".

Class colors: blue and white
Class flower: Carnation with rose
Class motto: Today we prepare for our dream of tomorrow.
